The interests of political peace and social harmony as well as safety and sanity in legislation and honesty and fairness in governmental administration demands the overwhelming defeat of kluxerism in today's election. Read that calm, dispassionate discussion of it by Texas' greatest daily, the Dallas News, printed elsewhere, and then go to the polls and vote right. We must all stand together for the overthrow of kluxerism or be throttled by it. All our other differences pale into insignificance in the face of the menace of the "invisible empire". Do your duty as a good citizen today.

J. W. Crow, field man for the San Antonio Machine & Supply Co. in the installation of the Cameron-Muenink Automatic Cotton Packer, is home for a few days' rest and recreation after a strenuous four month's campaign in North Texas and parts of Oklahoma and Arkansas. Mr. Crow is having flattering success in introducing this profitable labor-saver, and is rendering a very useful service to the gin men of the South.

In our announcement column this week will be found the announcement of Prof. W. N. Saathoff for re-election to the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Saathoff has successfully filled this office for a number of terms and during this time the schools of the county have been greatly improved and advanced. He has been a tireless worker for the schools all this time.

E. C. Taylor had the misfortune to fall from a wagon load of hay Tuesday and sustained a painful injury to his right leg in the region of the knee and also other body bruises. He has been walking with a stick since, but his friends hope to see him soon recovered.

Mrs. W. S. Moore and little son, Kenneth, are here from Dallas visiting Mrs. Moore's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Getter, and also the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crow.

Earl Boon and George Schuehle returned last week from a trip down to Webb county. Mr. Boon says the people here have no reason to complain of the dry spell we are now experiencing. He says those who want to see a real dry section ought to go down toward the Laredo country where it is really dry. He says when they got on the hills south of town on the return trip and looked down in the valley the country looked mighty good to them. However, he says cattle are doing fairly well despite the protracted dry spell.

Carter & Bader, Ford dealers, report the following deliveries since our last report: Eddie Moehring, Hondo, touring; Jose Valesquez, Hondo, touring; Louis Britsch, Hondo, sedan; Louis Mofield, Hondo, roadster, A. L. Haegelin, Hondo, touring; Mrs. Joe Zerr, Hondo, touring; Rosalio Rebaro, Yancey, truck; Alvin Britsch, Hondo, touring; Wm. Grant, Hondo, touring; E. E. Wilson, Yancey, touring; E. L. Brod, D'Hanis one-ton truck; Rev. G. E. Grueber, Hondo, coupe; Thad Gilliam, Hondo Tractor.

L. E. Heath, tax assessor, carried his rolls to Austin last Friday and delivered them to the comptroller. While he was not the first, he was among the first, seven other assessors getting their rolls to the comptroller ahead of him. Mrs. Heath and daughter, Miss Loraine accompanied him to the Capital city.

Misses Dee Crow and Hettie Fusselman left on Monday evening's train for a visit in San Antonio. However, before leaving these young ladies took advantage of the absentee voting law, left their ballots with the county clerk, and will be represented in the primary election today.

The issue in this contest is not prohibition, it is not taxation, it is not whether man or woman should be nominated for governor, candidates being but mere incidents; it is not whether Robertson is and anti or a pro. These matters, however important in ordinary circumstances, are utterly insignificant when compared with the real and vital issue at stake.

Reduced to a simple and concrete statement that issue is whether we are to have government of the people, by the people, for the people, or a government of the clan, by the clan and for the clan.

This can not be evaded, disguised or covered up. Our side did not make it but we must face it or surrender. If the Ku Klux Klan should win this election they will have a strangle-hold on the state government.

In our announcement column this week will be found the announcement of S. A. Jungman as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk of Medina County. Mr. Jungman has successfully filled this important position for several terms and is thoroughly conversant with all its details.

The announcement of F. G. Muennink for re-election to the office of County Tax Collector appears elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Muennink has filled this position for two terms, and again asks the office on the merits of a continuance of the same service.

Mrs. Charles Gracebuer and grandson, and Mr. Arthur Eucker of Boerne, and Mrs. Gregos and son of San Antonio visited F. H. Bohlen and family Tuesday. They were accompanied home by Miss Lena Grell of Boerne.

L. E. Heath places his announcement in our announcement column this week and solicits the votes of the people for re-election to the office of Tax Assessor. Mr. Heath has filled this office for several terms, and if re-elected will continue to serve the people as before.

H. R. Bailey announces in this issue for the office of County Clerk of Medina County. Mr. Bailey is a native of the county, has lived in the county all his life and is a successful stock-farmer, and is widely known by the voters of the county. This is the first time he has ever run for a public office.

The bootlegger has to be hunted in his lair and joined by a partner in crime—his customer—before his crime is accomplished. The knights of the lash and crescent bucket hunted Burelson on the public highway and the unpunished murderers of Lange invaded his home. JUST A WORD BEFORE WE VOTE.

Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, Texas, is opposing Felix Robertson, of Dallas, self-confessed klan candidate, for the governorship of Texas. She is a member of the Episcopal church, mother of two splendid daughters and a woman of rare common sense and executive ability. Her candidacy is endorsed and being actively supported by every one of the seven other candidates for governor eliminated in the first primary.

The campaign for governor is drawing to a close, and as we go to the polls I want to say just a word to the people of Texas.

Running for an office has been a new experience for me. While there is, more or less, some physical discomfort in traveling from point to point to meet the people yet the intense interest of the people and their most cordial greeting everywhere has been a great gratification which I shall never forget. I have been overwhelmed by the loyalty of friends wherever I have gone and I only wish it would have been possible for me to have visited every section of the state. But the short time allotted me for the campaign has made it impossible for me to go to but a few places. As governor of the state, I shall visit different sections and inform myself as to the needs of the people.

I have not in this campaign referred to my opponent only in terms of respect and so far as I am informed he has pursued the same course toward me. While he and my husband have carried on more or less of a mutual admiration society, I have not thought it necessary for me to engage in personalities. As I am by the voice of the people to be the governor I deem it my duty to keep myself clear from personal strife. Men always have too much temper and they very often let their feelings rule them instead of their better judgment.

As the klan issue is the dominant issue in the campaign I appeal to the people everywhere to turn out and vote their sentiments. If the voter stays at home his majority might be reduced to where it would appear that the people are divided on the question. While I will be elected yet anything less than a decisive majority will not settle the klan question in Texas. For this reason I want to impress upon the people the necessity of going to the polls and giving the anti-klan candidates such a decisive majority that the question will not vex us again. Now is the time to do it.

I appeal to my sister women to become active and urge the men to go to the polls. Our sex is now on trial and we must again prove to all mankind that the hand that has rocked the cradles of men can rule the destinies of men—when duty calls.

If my majority can be swelled to 200,000 then all partisan strife will be hushed in Texas. I can then give my sole time and attention to state affairs and finances.

There are too many pressing matters that involve the material welfare of the people crying for attention for us to waste much more time in either religious or political strife. The conservation of our natural resources, the development of our educational institutions—higher and lower—the care of the insane, the building of roads and other demands need the entire time and attention of the governor and IT WOULD BE UNFORTUNATE IF THE PEOPLE DID NOT REGISTER AN EMPHATIC VERDICT AGAINST THE KLAN SO THAT IT WILL NOT FURTHER DISTURB AND HAMPER THE FREE EXERCISE OF THE DUTIES OF THE GOVERNORSHIP.

I want to express my heartfelt thanks for the support from the great masses of our people and I shall pray God for help to make me worthy of their confidence and a means of service to them. I want to thank the many prominent men who have been active in the development of our Texas citizenship and who, regardless of past differences, are giving me their support in this great contest. I feel the need of their counsel in performing the duties of governor and I know that they will further assist me in guiding the ship of state.

With love and thanks to all and malice toward none I will deeply appreciate it if everybody will turn out and vote on the 26th.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Get Back Your Health As Other Hondo Folks Have Done.

Too many people suffer lame, aching backs, distressing kidneys disorders and rheumatic aches and pains. Often this is due to faulty kidney action and there's danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Don't let weak kidneys wear you out. Use Doan's Pills before it is too late! Doan's are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Here is one of many Hondo cases:

Mrs. P. H. Renkin, tinsmith, says: "My kidneys were disordered and acted irregularly. I used Doan's Pills and they entirely removed the trouble."

FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. Renkin said: "I still use Doan's when my back or kidneys bother me and they always cure the attacks."

ANOTHER CRUCIAL DAY IN TEXAS HISTORY.

from the Dallas News.

It is not the habit of the News to support or oppose the candidacies of men for public offices. Its rule has been to keep out of such contests. But now and then it has disregarded this rule of conduct on occasions when it felt that a candidacy was fraught with graver consequences than the issues of measure and policy involved in them.

The News feels that it is confronted by such an occasion now. The differences between the platforms of Mrs. Ferguson and Judge Robertson, with respect to legislative and administration questions of government, are not many nor important. At most, they give one but a substantial reason for preferring the candidacy of one or the other. But the two candidacies are differentiated by a political and moral issue of such great moment as to make the rule of neutrality which it has been the custom of the News to observe incompatible with its sense of duty it owes to itself and the people of Texas, with whose interests its own are woven.

Judge Robertson is the nominee of the Ku Klux Klan. To the nomination of that organization he is seeking to add the nomination of the democratic party, and in seeking to do that he is trying to make the democratic party a vassal of the Klan. He is seeking the office of governor at the instance, with the consent and at the direction of a few individuals who exercise an oligarchic domination over the political activities of the Ku Klux Klan. He owes that success he has had and whatever hope he indulges to the power and influence which that organization holds over the religious prejudices of men and women. That plain undeniable fact is an imperative reason for the opinion of the News, why Mrs. Ferguson should be elected Governor of Texas.

The News has no desire to engage in any extensive consideration of the purposes and works of the Ku Klux Klan. Nor is there occasion to do so. The News has already done that. It is enough to say that events have unfolded to an astonishing degree the recasts which the News made of a career more than two years ago. The News is aware now, as it has always been, that the Klan counts among its members, though in diminished and diminishing numbers, many good men who have given their fealty to it out of an earnest desire to serve a patriotic purpose. This there is ample evidence. But if they have erred in their judgment of its ability, and even of its intention, to accomplish the very purpose which they had in joining it, it is a most melancholy way, the demoralization it has brought to our politics, the strife it has brought into our social relations, the by the terrorism which it has brought into our civic and business affairs. Intimidation and the boycott are among the means which it uses to constrain those who are oblivious to the prejudices which it fosters and to the hatreds which it sows.

It but states a truth of every one's cognition to say that, pretending to be a fraternal organization, the Ku Klux Klan has become almost exclusively a political organization. To it there could be no valid objection if the Klan used the same methods that other political parties do in treatment, discussion and demoralization of our political questions. It does not. Its methods and processes are peculiar to itself. It attacks the cards against the electorate generally. Its political policies and nominations are prescribed by a few men acting in secrecy; and not by men with respect to the people at large, but equally with respect to the elect of its own members. And in making their decisions and their nominations, they imperiously command the support of them, using various measures of threat and intimidation to enforce their command. As they reduce those of the Klan's members who are obedient from the status of sovereign citizens to the ignominious one of puppets used in the game of politics whose prizes go to those who direct and command. The freedom of choice and judgment which is the heritage of every born citizen is in effect destroyed to the degree that the Ku Klux Klan is capable of doing it. A political organization using the methods of the Ku Klux Klan is a menace to our institutions and must endanger them in proportion to its strength.

The election of Judge Robertson would mean that the powers of that office would be used primarily for the aggrandizement of the Klan and of its leaders. We know this from the experience we have had of its rule in the cities and counties. This its leaders exact of those whom they lift into places of authority. We should have government by a minority faction in the interest primarily of the minority faction. That certain consequence is reason enough why Judge Robertson should not be elected. But there is another in the equal certainty that his election would prolong the existence and for a time increase the power of an organization whose works have been pernicious. Soon or late we shall be compelled, as a means of saving the principles of popular government, to rid ourselves of the Klan as a political power. We can do it now by electing Mrs. Ferguson. Her election will sound the death knell of the Klan as a political power in this State. Judge Robertson's election would increase the need of destroying it as a political power, but postpone the day of its destruction and make the task more difficult. We shall not escape the duty and the necessity. The present opportunity is the best we have had to do that, and the best we are likely to have for many a day.

CALOMEL GOOD BUT TREACHEROUS.

Next Dose may Salivate, Shock Liver or Attack Your Bones.

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take Calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

Special Telegram to The Express.

TEMPLE, Tex., Aug. 14.—Expressing the desire that Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson be nominated for Governor and indicating in that event his campaign would be perfunctory, Thomas P. Lee, Republican nominee for Governor, has wired from Colorado Springs to Ferguson as follows: "Having just been informed that the Republicans of Texas nominated me as their candidate for Governor, may I not express to you my sincere desire that your good wife receive the Democratic nomination in the August 23rd primary, in which event I shall be thoroughly content with the usual Republican empty honor, knowing that our great State will be governed in accordance with the Constitution, and therefore in the interest of all our people, with equal rights for all and special privileges for none."

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News.

ALBERT LANG IS DEAD

Albert Lang, 59, father and for many years a resident in Devine and commonly known to the boys as "Blue" Lang, died Sunday at Bay or Hospital, San Antonio, and interment was made at Palestine, where he was born and reared and where his mother is buried. Mr. Lang was formerly in business in San Antonio but later came to Medina county and to Devine, where he was considered a fine farmer. He was of jovial nature, and while for the past several months had been on the infirm bed, no one realized that the end was near. He had no relatives in this section, but Mr. W. M. Williamson accompanied his remains to their old home town, where Mr. Williamson knew his family when they were boys.

Tell of Big Brown Factory For Devine.

There has been serious talk of a big brown factory for Devine the past week, by men who can command the money to finance the enterprise. The little factory here is making 100 to 150 the day and can't fill their orders; and the promoters say a big factory will not hurt the little one at all, as there is plenty room. We are raising the straw and there is an unlimited demand for brown. About three hundred men are talking it but nothing has taken tangible shape as far as we have learned. The News knows of nothing that promises more for the promoters, or for the town and county, than to make up the straw we raised here into brown and sell it at several hundred percent greater profit.

We stopped in at the Devine Brown works one day this week and saw a half a dozen people, two brown experts from San Antonio, with those of Devine putting out brown at the rate of 100 and more the day. They are making good brown and can't keep up with their orders.

Alex. Bohl threshed and baled about sixteen tons of broomcorn off forty acres, dry farming, on the Bohl farm this year. For which he was offered $155 one day last week, but is holding for higher prices, having it insured in the Hartford. That is better than $50 the acre at price offered.

Conditions like these have led the educators, manufacturers, engineers and economists who head the Eyesight Conservation Council, to carry into every State an educational campaign for better vision.

The schools are a particularly fertile field for eyesight conservation. In the rural communities particularly, very little provision is made for the care of the children's eyes for the proper lighting of the school rooms. In 1,262 rural schools reporting from eighteen different States eyes are not tested in 76.7 per cent of them. Statistics from different States where school children's eyes have been examined have shown that from 25 to 60 per cent of them had some eye defects needing correction. When we note that of the 1,000,000 school children of New York city public schools who have failed to pass their examinations last year 50,000 were found to be suffering from eye defects needing attention, we can well understand why some rural communities report that a number of their pupils are "retarded".

Teachers throughout the country should be trained to make certain simple tests of the eyes of the children under their care to determine those cases which are manifestly below normal and in need of immediate attention. This would be of great assistance and would detect most of the extremely bad cases and thereby avoid much needless suffering as well as waste in efficiency of our educational system.

It is significant that with all the health work that has been done in schools, it is still true that a great majority of children in this country with defective vision have not yet received any intelligent care. Schools are not yet making sufficient provision for careful examination of pupils. Neglect with reference to vision is greater in country schools.

Human efficiency is more dependent upon good eyesight than any other sense. Nature allots the human machine a certain portion of nerve energy. Defective eyes demand extra nerve energy and must, of necessity, lessen the normal nerve supply. Waste of nervous energy directly diminishes human efficiency.

The work done by the engineering committee on the elimination of waste in industry, which was headed by J. Parke Channing of New York and by men like Prof. Wood of Columbia should not be lost upon industry and education. In New York City Dr. Goldberger and his associates are striving to obtain renewed vigilance upon the part of teachers and parents in order that each child should have vision as normal as that to which he is entitled by nature.

New York's example in eye conservation and in the promotion of the general health of the child should be followed by the nation.

Have your eyes examined.

If the Ku Klux faction should seize the state government the people can depend on it that they will established a Ku Klux machine from one end of this state to the other. "To vote for Mrs. Ferguson's opponent in the primary is to vote for the Ku Klux Klan, and the Klan is a secret organization that is a menace to public order and to the Government itself. Two organizations, one acting under a definite, written Constitution, with definite guarantees of the rights of the citizens, individually and collectively, and functioning in public view and within the law, and the other a mysterious, invisible, masked, un-American, un-Democratic and intolerant organization, can not both exercise temporal power. THE GOVERNMENT MUST GIVE WAY OR THE KLAN MUST GIVE WAY. The policies and practices of the Klan are violative of the guarantees of the Bill of Rights and are destructive of the Government set up under the Constitution."—John H. Kirby.

BENEFIT PLAY A SUCCESS.

The play "A Night in Old Virginia" given by the young people of Hondo under the supervision of Octavia Davis at the Auditorium Friday night was a success.

The program was well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed. Aside from the musical numbers and readings the scenery and the dress of the actors lent their part to the idea carried out.

The proceeds, one hundred and one dollars and seventy-five cents went to the Hondo Volunteer Fire Company to help pay for their new equipment.

YANCEY REVIVAL.

A revival meeting will begin next Sunday, Aug. 24th, at the Methodist Tabernacle at Yancey, Texas. Rev. W. L. Barr of Woodlawn Place Church, San Antonio, will be in charge and Rev. L. D. Hardt of Big Wells will lead the singing. Rev. Barr is one of the best preachers in the West Texas Conference and Rev. Hardt is quite a singer and director.

The other denominations of Yancey are especially invited to be with us and help us through their presence and prayers. Everybody is welcome.

Come.
F. W. RADETSKY, Pastor.
